Dear Colleague,

I hope your community is recovering from Hurricane Helene – please let me know if there is anything Columbia can do to help. A week or so ago, you should have received an invite like the one below to the USCM P3 Education Institute being held in Columbia, South Carolina on October 29, 2024.

I wanted to reach out to personally invite you and/or leaders from your city, town, or county to join us for this important workshop on October 29th focused on creating and maintaining successful public private partnerships. As a member of the U.S. Conference of Mayors, I serve on the P3 Task Force which focuses on best practices for establishing partnerships to accomplish critical projects and goals. The City of Columbia has benefited immensely from thinking innovatively about P3s, and I invite you all to come learn more and see how you could apply them in your communities for effectively.

Please register using this link and let me or my staff member Payton know if you have any questions. We hope to see you or a representative from your community in the Capital City on October 29th!

THE UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF MAYORS INVITES YOU TO

This complimentary one-day workshop will provide foundational knowledge through targeted education to mayors and their staff on the subject of Public-Private Partnerships (P3s). Private industry experts will explore the possibilities of P3 with the group, before discussing your city's infrastructure challenges and any project proposals or ideas you might have.

On completion, participants will earn certification in P3 Fundamentals.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- MAYORS/DEPUTY MAYORS
- COUNCIL MEMBERS
- CITY MANAGERS
- ASSISTANT CITY MANAGERS
- CHIEFS OF STAFF
- DEPARTMENT DIRECTORS
- CITY EMPLOYEES INVOLVED IN:
  - Public Works
  - Community Development
  - Economic Development
  - Mass Transit, Airports, Ports
  - Utility/Water Systems
  - Facility Management

The P3 Institute is a collaboration between the USCM P3 Task Force and the Association for the Improvement of American Infrastructure (AIAI), the leading organization dedicated to providing advocacy and education on the P3 model with the ultimate goal of strengthening American Infrastructure. The work of the USCM P3 Task Force is supported by the USCM P3 Council, a diverse group of mayors from across the country committed to sharing best practices and experiences in delivering impactful projects to their communities.
