Larry, as global temperatures skyrocket, our communities are paying the price as extreme weather events.

But it doesn't have to be this way. Climate Reality is fighting to end the era of fossil fuels that is devastating our communities and our planet. But time is running out before our urgent midnight deadline, and we're still falling $2,392 short of our end-of-quarter goal. We're counting on your help to get back on track before it's too late, but when we checked our records, this is what we found:

Larry, we have just hours left until our midnight deadline, so please:

Donate to Climate Reality now to power our fight for a truly net zero future.

From calling out Big Oil for fake climate commitments to building grassroots opposition to fossil fuel projects, our network of 3.5 million is taking the bold climate action we desperately need to address the climate crisis at its core.

To rein in global rising temperatures and prevent a future of extreme weather disasters, we must end the era of fossil fuels. We CAN win this fight, Larry, but we need your urgent support now to continue this critical work. So please:

Will you rush a gift to Climate Reality right now, before our end-of-quarter deadline at midnight tonight, and power our fight for a just and sustainable future?

Thank you for being a part of our climate fight.
