Wednesday, September 25

12:00 - 12:45 PM CST

Limited vendor pools. Manual processes. Inconsistent communication.

These are the makings of procurement pains that can starve innovation, create fewer opportunities for competition, and increase costs.

But with the power of automation, you can increase supplier engagement and satisfaction while completing projects on time and under budget.

Join us tomorrow to explore the mechanics of OpenGov Procurement, including:

- Automated supplier outreach
- Streamlined solicitation processes
