Subject: In-person Interview for Mayoral Race

Good morning, Robert

First and foremost, I hope you and your family are doing well after Hurricane Helene and the destruction it brought through the Upstate.

I know many are still without power, which leaves a lot of folks without what we've considered to be necessities. I'd much prefer to wait on sending this email but with early voting just a few weeks away, I do need to get out ahead of it.

The Journal is looking to do in-person interviews for both the mayoral race, as well as the race for seats on council.

Please let me know your availability to come to The Journal's office in Seneca to do an interview regarding your race, beginning on Oct. 7, and through Oct. 18. Early voting begins on Oct. 21 so that would give me the much-needed time to get that information out to the community.

With work, other responsibilities or just recovering from the storm, I know it can be difficult to make it up here — I will do my best to be flexible with whichever times work best for you.

Thank you for your time,
Caleb
